

EGNA Houghton Airfield

Houghton, Lancashire.

Another challenging airfield for you to find, near the famous Houghton Tower (not yet displayed)) (don't use Navigation aids, you're only cheating yourself and achieving nothing) again in the heart of Lancashire.

I made up the ICAO Code.

The best way to find this airfield is find the M61 and fly to the 2nd Junction on the M65 (check it on a map or Google Earth) then fly eastwards along the M65 until you see a small bridge crossing the motorway, turn north here and time 60 seconds and this will take you directly to the field. Aircraft on the ground help a little but it's difficult, my hats go off to the guys who find these fields that's for sure. Be easier when we have VR!.
